- Each page matched expected outcome in terms of functionality

- Home page contained interesting information and organized efficiently

- No additional features mentioned by evaluators

- Search page noted as being clear, concise, and visible

- "Add to watchlist" feature intuitive

  - User doesn't necessarily want to jump to watchlist page after adding movie

- confused/frustrated by removing from watchlist

  - Why click on checkmark to remove?

  - Why a plus sign when it's gone?

  - Why is it still there after I remove it?

  - No confirmation of removal

- Movie page was engaging and organized normally, functioned well to click on user reviews and jumps to next page

- Review screen made sense, good display at the top of the screen highlighting what is important

Overall: Some flaws were found, and there are a couple improvements to be made.
